MACQUARIE HARBOUR

The Gunter was transported from Hobart Town to this place. The settlement is upon Sandy Island near the upper end of the Harbour. There is a Light stationed there as Commandant. Two small Forts are added to the Establishment to carry provisions and prisoners to the settlement. Small vessels only can enter the bay at this Month.

U.S. was the intention of the COLONIAL GOVERNMENT to make a Survey of the North Western part of VAN DIEMEN'S LAND in the Summer between 1813 and 1814, viz the months of November, December and January. A Regal was also to be dispatched to cooperate with the Land expedition on that Part of the Coast.

The Parties sent from Macquarie Harbour to the Toward to not yet possible. Several of the men were sent from the last place to attempt to reach the Toward have died on the road, another party after having killed one of their comrades to preserve their own lives were obliged to return and give themselves up to the Commandant.

The South Eastern part of Van Diemen Land received this name from Cap^t Ableton Thomson who discovered it in 1792. Since that time it has been circumnavigated by a small Ship called the Norfolk commanded by Lieut. M. Binkley in the Year 1796. It is now found to be 20 leagues distant from any known part of New Holland and contains something more than 15000 square Miles of surface. It is under the Jurisdiction of the Gov^t of New South Wales.
