Husband's Notes
As an Architect in later life he started to specialise in designing and supervising the building of churches. The five churches and associated buildings he designed are: the new St. Michael's Church and Primary School, Baulkham Hills; the original St. Bernadette's Church and primary school (one building) at Castle Hill; the original Our Lady of Lourdes Church and primary school (one building) at Baulkham Hills; Our Lady of the Rosary Church, Kellyville; he redesigned the chapel and church interior at the Carmelite Monastery in Winston Hills NSW; a new Catholic Church in Links Road, Gunnedah, NSW and also large alterations and additions at the Convent of Mercy's Infirmary in Gunnedah, NSW. Another of his achievements was the Commonwealth Registration of his design for the "CORRYBEE" folding wooden clothes horse - Reg. No. 21327 18 July 1944 and its subsequent Extension of the Registration up until 1954. He was also an elected Councilor on the Baulkham Hills Shire Council for many years. A pupil at Parramatta High School he played in their 15t XV Rugby Union team in 1933 as well as being a member of the NSW Combined High Schools 2nd XV Rugby team. While at Parrainatta High School he also excelled at athletics being the Champion Mile Walker.
